

Beer Retailers' and Spirit Grocers' Licences (Ireland) Bill.

MEMORANDUM.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to put new applications in Ireland for spirit grocers retail licences and beer retail licences (in each case for consumption off the premises) on the same footing;
- (b) to extend to Irish licensing authorities in respect of such licences the powers of the English Act of 1882 (45 & 46 Vict. c. 34).

The Bill becomes necessary because as the Act of 1882 only provided in terms against its application to Scotland, it was considered, until a recent decision in the Irish Courts to the contrary, that it inferentially applied to Ireland as well as to England.

Amend the Laws relating to Beer Retailers' and Spirit Grocers' Licences in Ireland.

A.D. 1860.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law as to the granting of certificates for all new licences for the sale of beer and spirits by retail for consumption off the premises:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding anything in any Act now in force the licensing justices shall be at liberty, in their free and unqualified discretion, either to refuse a certificate for any new licence for sale of beer or spirits by retail, to be consumed off the premises, on any grounds appearing to them sufficient, or to grant the same to such persons as they, in the execution of their statutory powers and in the exercise of their discretion deem fit and proper, and in order thereto shall be at liberty to hear and receive and act upon any objection and any evidence either in support thereof or in aid of the application made or tendered by any resident or owner of property in the parish wherein are situate the house and premises in respect of which such certificate is applied for.

licensing justices to
